

November 8, 2017

To whom it may concern:

I have previously been employed with the City of Reno. I was a Firefighter for 27 years. In that time I gained an understanding of the Civil Service Process. I would like to serve as Commissioner to give back to the community and make a difference in the process.

I have am a lifetime member of the Reno-Sparks NAACP, having served as President in 1997 and 1998.

I am a member of the Lear Board, and Current President of OurStoryInc.com, a history based project started in 1996, cataloging the historical achievements of African Americans in Northern Nevada.

Thank you for your time and consideration,

Kenneth Dalton
